THIS WEEK IN KINDERGARTEN WE...

RELIGION

- lit one purple candle on our Advent wreath, and said a prayer each day to prepare our hearts for Jesus
- sang our advent song, "If Your Heart is Ready for Jesus"
- learned about St. Nicholas, and celebrated his feast day on Dec. 6th
- talked about being courageous when it's tough to do the right thing

READING/LANGUAGE

- focused on the letter Nn, and its sound /n/ at the beginning and ending of words
- practiced writing Nn on lined paper
- learned the sight words, your, on, that
- read many different versions of the Gingerbread Man
- practiced recognizing digraphs, 2 letters that make 1 new sound when they are together, th, sh, wh, ch, ck

MATH/SCIENCE

- graphed the question, "Have you put up your Christmas tree?"
- worked in math centers to practice previous learned skills
- counted down the days until Christmas
- created a class book of story problems
- practiced working with number bonds
- used "math talk" to tell how we recognized a set of objects quickly without counting
- learned that gravity is an invisible force that pulls us. We experimented with ramps and various objects to explore the force of gravity.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1. BMCS Christmas Program will take place on Thursday, December 13th at 6:30 pm at Centennial Chapel on the ONU campus. Please arrive early. It gets quite crowded very quickly. We know you will enjoy this wonderful gift!

2. Thank you for sending in the donations of crayons for our Christmas giving project. If you have not already done so, we are still collecting next week.

*ALSO, Thank you for the wipes for the classroom!! ☺

3. Be sure to check out our float in the Bradley Lighted Christmas Parade, this Friday, Dec. 7th.

4. The weather has certainly taken a turn! Brrrrrr! Thank you for sending hats and gloves with your child. *Girls may wear tights, or bring leggings to slip on before recess to keep those bare legs warm! ☺

5. Scholastic Book orders are due today. I'll most likely place the order on Saturday, so there is still time, if you'd like to order online.

Have a Nice weekend!

Mrs. Sharon Skelly
