THIS WEEK IN KINDERGARTEN WE...

RELIGION

- learned about the saints, and asked the Saints to pray for us
- learned that we are all called to be saints
- sang the song, "When the Saints Go Marching In" and added a few verses of our own
- attended All Saints day mass
- practiced praying The Lord's Prayer and making the sign of the cross

LANGUAGE/READING

- recognized letter Cc and named its sound /c/
- reviewed all sight words and the color words
- created words using the middle vowel sound of short /i/
- read a mini-book titled Fall Leaves
- read other books about autumn and leaves
- practiced rhyming words

MATH/SCIENCE

- worked with numbers 1-100 using the 100 chart
- counted past 50 days of school
- practiced the concept of "counting on" from a given number
- compared sets of objects and used the words "greater than" and "less than"
- estimated the number of candy pumpkins in a jar.

IMPORTANT NEWS

1. Thank you to all the parents who helped with the Halloween Party! The kids had a great time. 😊
2. Please wash and return the rest blankets on Monday. Please remember, smaller blankets work better for our classroom!
3. You will find attached the Disguised Turkey project. This is meant to be a family project, and the turkeys will be displayed in the hallway. Please return the finished project by Friday, November 9th. Thank you for taking the time to work on this creative project together. 😊
4. Veteran's Day Program: Friday, November 9th at 9:30 in the gym. All veterans are welcome to attend.
5. The November Scholastic Book order is due by next Friday.
6. I will begin sending home a "Baggie Book" with your child starting next week. This will be a book that is at your child's independent reading level. Please keep the book thru the week to practice reading and rereading. I will also send a comment form to be filled out by you, the parent.

Have a carefree weekend!
